THE LAST TIME THEY MET ...

BLOCK PARTY: EOU WINS IN THRILLING FASHION

Oct. 15, 2011

LA GRANDE, Ore. -- The No. 23 Eastern Oregon University football team used a key block at the end of regulation to defeat Montana Tech, 22-15.

Homecoming weekend for Eastern Oregon ends in a joyous cheer as the Mountaineers block two field goal attempts in the final seconds to win a close one, 22-15. The Mountaineers were led on the ground by Senior Kevin Sampson who rushed for a game-high 101 yards and one touchdown. Senior Chris Ware threw the ball 26 times for 15 completions and 199 yards and no interceptions. The Mountaineers gained a total of 388 yards.

The first quarter started off with the Mountaineers opening up the game with the ball, and in two plays drove 69 yards for the first score of the game, putting Eastern Oregon up 7-0. Montana stalled on their next drive and the Mountaineers capitalized with a 25-yard field goal from Ortiz. Scoring was non-existent until halfway through the second quarter when Montana Tech kicked a 23-yard field goal. The second quarter featured some dysfunctional football with both teams combining for 7 penalties for over 59 yards.

Montana Tech started the third quarter off with a 24-yard touchdown pass from Schwarzkopf to Halko, putting the Orediggers behind 10-9, after a missed PAT. The fourth quarter featured a 16-play drive by Montana Tech which resulted in a punt. The punt was fumbled by Kedrick Starr and recovered by Montana tech, who put six points on the board in the next two plays. After a missed 2-point conversion the Orediggers led 15-10. On Eastern Oregon's next drive Kevin Sampson rushed for a 31-yard touchdown putting the Mountaineers 16-15 after a failed 2-point conversion. With two chances to win the game with field goals at the end, Montana Tech had both attempts blocked and the latter returned for a touchdown as time expired, giving the Mountaineers a 22-15 win on Homecoming weekend.

Montana Tech was led by quarterback Brian Schwarzkopf who was 9-25 through the air for 89 yards and one touchdown. On the ground the Orediggers were led by Pat Hansen who rushed for 72 yards on 29 carries and one touchdown. Montana Tech totaled 202 yards.

SWEET 16 START FOR THE MOUNTAINEERS

The Eastern Oregon University football team begins its 2012 season ranked No. 16 in the NAIA Preseason Top 25 poll. The No. 16 ranking marks the school's highest preseason rating. The Mountaineers' 91 votes were the most votes Eastern has received in the preseason poll since the 2009 team earned 74 votes and a preseason rating of No. 21. The 2005 team received 24 votes and was in the receiving votes' column. The Mountaineers have been ranked in 13 consecutive polls, the longest streak in school history. Eastern climbed as high as No. 9 last season and ended the year at No. 19. EOU was No. 17 in the spring poll. The Mountaineers opened last season with one vote in the preseason poll.

EOU TABBED THIRD IN CONFERENCE POLL

Eastern was selected third in the Frontier Conference Preseason Coaches' Poll. Defending conference champion and NAIA national runner-up, Carroll College, is the preseason favorite of the league's football coaches to repeat as champions for the 2012 season. The Saints have won 12 straight Frontier Conference titles. Montana State-Northern received one first place vote and finished second in the balloting. Eastern Oregon is picked to finished third followed by Rocky Mountain College, Southern Oregon, Montana Tech, Dickinson State and Montana Western.

TROUBLE IN THE COLISEUM

In Butte, the Mountaineers have won in 2005, 2009, and last year's season opener 31-15. Alumni Coliseum has been home of Montana Tech football since 1966. Now in its 43rd season the home field to the OreDiggers has become one of the toughest places to play in the Frontier Conference. From the long trip, to the raucous fans, to the talented football played at Tech, Alumni Coliseum is a formidable place for opposing teams. Recent renovations include 486 reserved seats and a 18x24 foot video replay board.

A NEW FRONTIER

College football has seen it's fair share of conference expansion, and the Frontier Conference is no different. One of the toughest conferences in the NAIA, the Frontier moves from six members to eight this season, split in two divisions. With newcomers Southern Oregon and Dickinson State (N.D.) the conference's footprint is one of the largest in small college athletics. The College of Idaho announced it will bring back it's football team in 2014, and the Yotes will compete in the Frontier as well.

NOT A BAD START

The No. 2 Carroll College Saints opened their season with a 31-6 win at Montana State-Northern last weekend. Carroll dominated a matchup of the top two preseason picks by the conference's coaches. The Saints rolled out to a 31-0 lead in the fourth quarter behind Chance Demarais' 142 yards on the ground. Last year's NAIA Player of the Year started off right where he left off leading Carroll into a clash at NCAA FCS opponent, Portland State, this weekend.

ROCKY RUMBLES OVER JAMESTOWN

Rocky Mountain College opened the season with a 38-19 win against Jamestown College of North Dakota. The Bears had a 262-yard passing effort from quarterback Bryce Baker. Mickey Payne led Rocky on the ground with 94 rushing yards. He scored one touchdown. Rocky put up 31 points before the Jimmies were able to get on the board in Billings.
