Mick Delaney was named the 35th head football coach at The University of Montana in July of 2012, and he signed a two-year contract. He replaced Robin Pflugrad whose contract was not renewed after serving as UM's mentor the previous two seasons (2010 and 2011).

Delaney was an assistant coach at Montana from 2008-11, working with the running backs and he was also the associate head coach. He had retired briefly before returning to UM and assuming the position as UM's head coach.

He was instrumental in the development of running back Chase Reynolds, who rushed for 4,067 yards and a school-record 52 touchdowns the previous three seasons.

A veteran mentor, Mick began coaching football in 1964. This will be his 28th season of coaching football at the collegiate level.

Originally from Butte, he came to Montana from Colorado State where he was an assistant coach for former head coach Sonny Lubick for 15 seasons from 1993-2007.

Former Griz head coach Bobby Hauck hired Delaney in 2008. Pflugrad retained Delaney as the lone official holdover from Hauck's staff.

While at CSU, Delaney coached some of the finest running backs in school history, including five first-team all-conference selections such as Cecil Sapp (2000). Sapp was a finalist for the Doak Walker Award and set a school rushing record with 1,601 yards in 2002. Sapp went on to play with the Denver Broncos.

Prior to coaching the Rams, Delaney was the head football coach and athletic director at Western Montana, Dillon, in 1991 and 92. He served as the athletic director at Montana Tech in Butte from 1983-85.

Delaney began his coaching career at Butte Central High School (1964-67) as head wrestling coach and assistant football coach. He also taught English at Central.

Delaney was an assistant football coach under former UM head coach Jack Swarthout from 1968-69. He was UM's head wrestling coach at that time as well. He then moved on to Great Falls High School (1969-76) where he taught English and was the assistant wrestling and track and field coach. He coached on Lubick's staff at Montana State from 1979-80.

He earned his B.A. in education at UM-Western (Western Montana College) in 1964. He is an inaugural inductee into the Western Montana College Sports Hall of Fame and was honored by the Montana Coaches Association in 1972 as the Wrestling Coach of the Year. In 1974 he was named the Football Coach of the Year by that organization. He also belonged to many associations during his athletic career including the Montana Coaches Association from 1968-1985.

Mick and his wife Cheri have three children, son Mike, daughters Shauna Basile and Melissa Ossello, and nine grandchildren.

QUOTING GRIZ HEAD COACH MICK DELANEY

ON WIN AT N. COLORADO: "We played great defense the whole day, right from the get-go, up until the middle of the fourth quarter. Up to that time the only scores that they had were a field goal and a kickoff return. That was a matter of bad technique, and give credit where credit is due, he's (Dominic Dunn) an outstanding return man, probably the best we've faced, and we faced some good ones. I think our guys were as well prepared as they've ever have been since I've been here, at least from a mental standpoint.

"Peter had a great game at running back again. He's just such a tough little bugger. 'Kirsh' (Brett Kirschner) got some turns after Jordie (Canada) went down with a little injury and he really helped us. You know to play receiver right now for Montana is a real challenge, because you might get two or three balls a game and the rest of the time we're asking them to block and they're really doing a nice job with that. Greg Hardy had a good game, and our O-line had a really good second half. Our offensive coaches made some adjustments at halftime that worked very good for us. The frustrating thing for us last weekend was the penalties (9 for 92) . We had four or five 15-yard penalties and a few 5-yarders. We've really got to get that cleaned up this week. We were hungry for a win, which you always are. We played two outstanding teams in NAU and Eastern Washington and came up short, so this was really important for our guys to go out and play a good, overall football game."

ON SOUTHERN UTAH: "They have an outstanding quarterback in Brad Sorensen (a 6-5, 235, Sr. transfer from BYU). Not only is he a good quarterback, but he's a football quarterback too, which means he really understands how to deal with pressure and coverages. They have a nice core of receivers and a darn good running back (Brian Wilson, 6-0, 210, Sr.). From a defensive standpoint we're going to have to be able to try to get Sorensen out of rythm and do a lot of mixing and changing on coverages and pressure, and how many we're going to drop, etcetera, etcetera. That's going to be a real challenge.

"Defensively they are just solid. They are very much like NAU and Eastern Washington. They are not huge up front, but very athletic. They run very well and have two senior starters (Namari Flentroy, 6-0, 230, and Rickey Clark, 6-2,. 225) at linebacker.

"This is going to be a knock down, drag out, just like all of our games have been other than last week. We just have to be prepared to face what we're shown and react to that. We need to continue to have good ball security like we did last week, and take the ball away a few times. We go from minus nine to minus four in one week, and that's good stuff. I'd like to see us to go to plus one or plus two this week, but that's asking a lot. That means we've got three or four, or five or six turnovers on "D." But you never know -- you get one on special teams and three of our on defense. I think our guys are more conscious of that because our coaches are really, really stressing that."

At Montana 35, South Dakota 24

MISSOULA, MONTANA (9/1/12) – The Grizzlies' two senior running backs rushed for more than 100 yards each, as the 10th/11th-ranked host Grizzlies defeated the University of South Dakota Coyotes 35-24 in the season opener for the teams Saturday afternoon in front of 25,156 partisan fans in UM's Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

Dan Moore had career-highs of 27 carries for 148 yards and a touchdown, while fellow UM senior halfback Peter Nguyen had 10 totes for 192 yards and a score. The Grizzlies picked up a school-record 34 first downs in the win.

UM (1-0) dominated USD in total yards (568 to 233) and first downs (34 to 9), but found itself in an eight point (24-16) deficit mid-way through the third quarter.

Montana led 16-10 at halftime, but the Coyotes, coached by former (2000-02) Griz mentor Joe Glenn, scored back-to-back touchdowns in a little more than a minute to take a 24-16 lead at the 9:47 mark of the third stanza.

On its first play of the third period quarterback Josh Vander Maten hit fellow sophomore Terrance Terry for an 80-yard downtown bomb, giving USD a 17-16 edge. Just a few plays later safety Charlie Goro picked off a Trent McKinney pass and returned it 50 yards for another score to give the visitors the 24-16 advantage.

The Grizzlies quickly regained the momentum, though with a bit of trickery, as on the their next series senior tight end Greg Hardy connected with senior wide receiver Bryce Carver for a 39-yard touchdown, and UM cut the USD lead to 24-22 with 7:11 left in the third.

Two series after Hardy's first career pass attempt and subsequent TD, the Grizzlies scored back-to-back touchdowns thanks to two straight USD turnovers.

The first USD mistake came when UM linebacker John Kanongata'a picked off a Vander Maten pass and the Griz took possession of the ball on the Coyotes' 34-yard line. Two runs by Nguyen picked up 20 yards, and then Moore broke free for a 14-yard scoring jaunt, and Montana led 28-24 with 4:49 remaining in the third stanza and would lead the rest of the way.

The Griz added an insurance score when sophomore defensive end Tonga Takai recovered a Coyote fumble on the USD 13-yard line. Three plays later Nguyen scored on a 3-yard run with 3:25 left in the third, in what proved to be the final points of the game.

Montana took an early 10-0 lead on a 21-yard field goal by redshirt freshman kicker Chris Lider and a 4-yard scoring pass from McKinney to senior wide receiver Sam Gratton. USD then cut the UM lead to 10-3 on a field goal by Kevin Robb with 10:33 left in the second quarter.

The Griz took a 16-3 lead on an 18-yard scoring strike from McKinney to junior wide receiver Cam Warren (his first career TD) with 6:08 left until intermission. An 8-yard Vander Maten to Terry pass made it 16-10 Grizzlies at the break.

The USD pick for a touchdown was one of the few mistakes that McKinney, a redshirt freshman in his first start, would make in the contest. The 6-0, 205-pounder from Mililani, Hawaii, was 26-of-32-1 (81.3%) for 214 yards and a pair of touchdowns, and he also rushed 13 times for 65 yards.

Gratton and sophomore wide-out Sean Haynes had a game-high 5 receptions each, while Carver and Nguyen had 4 grabs each. Warren had 3 grabs for 41 yards and a score.

The Griz racked up 315 yards rushing on 64 carries; ran 98 plays; had a 11-minute (35:57 to 23:03) edge in time of possession, to go along with their single-game record of 34 total first downs.

Junior linebacker Jordan Tripp led the Griz with 10 tackles, and also had a sack and a forced fumble. Kanongata'a added 8 stops, while senior linebacker Josh Stuberg added 6 tackles. The Grizzly defense held USD to 233 total yards (61 rushing) and 9 first downs.

At Appalachian State 35, Montana 27

BOONE, N.C. (9/8/12) – It was everything it was expected to be, but if you are a member of Griz Nation it did not come out the way you wanted it to.

It was a match-up between two of the power-house programs in the FCS, and it came down to the final minutes, but the host team scored two fourth-quarter TDs in the victory.

Quarterback Jamal Jackson threw two touchdown passes and running back Steven Miller rushed for two scores as the 8th/11th-ranked Appalachian State Mountaineers held off the never-say-die 9th/12th-ranked University of Montana Grizzlies for a 35-27 victory in front of 30,856 mostly partisan fans in ASU's Kidd Brewer Stadium.

Montana had its biggest play of the young season with 8:54 left to play, as senior running back Dan Moore caught a screen pass from redshirt freshman Trent McKinney, and Moore broke free for an 87-yard touchdown – tying the school record for the fifth longest scoring reception, and cutting the ASU lead to 28-27. Unfortunately, redshirt freshman kicker Chris Lider missed the ensuing PAT, and the Mountaineers led by one point.

ASU tacked on a security TD with 5:05 remaining on a 2-yard touchdown run by Miller.

Despite four turnovers, the Griz had a chance to tie the game on their last series. They advanced the ball to the ASU 42-yard line, but with 18 seconds left McKinney was picked off and the Mountaineers secured the win.

ASU had regained the lead with 13:03 left in the game, Jackson hit junior wide-out Andrew Peacock for a 25-yard touchdown, and ASU took a 28-21 lead.

The third quarter wasn't anything like the first two, as the defenses played very well, and neither team scored in that stanza.

The Griz tied the game for the second time in the opening half, when McKinney hooked up with senior wide receiver Sam Gratton for a 7-yard TD pass, making the score 21-all with 35 seconds remaining until intermission. It was an impressive first half for UM, as they gained 306 total yards, while ASU had 179.

ASU took the lead on its second possession of the game, a 9-play, 60-yard drive, capped off by a 13-yard scoring run by senior halfback Steven Miller, giving the home team a 14-7 lead at the 3:23 mark of the first stanza.

The Mountaineers took advantage of Montana's second turnover of the first quarter, as Jackson scored on a 5-yard run to give ASU a 21-7 cushion. ASU started that drive on the Griz 27-yard line after true freshman Chase Naccarato fumbled on a kickoff return.

The Griz cut the ASU lead to 21-14 on 9-play, 75-yard scoring drive with 13:12 left until half, as McKinney scored his first career rushing touchdown on a 10-yard run.

Both teams scored on their first possessions of the game. The Grizzlies took a 7-0 lead on a 2-yard touchdown pass from McKinney to fellow redshirt freshman Gavin Hagfors, who scored on his first career catch.

The Mountaineers came right back, though, as Jackson connected with wide receiver Shawn Rice on a 32-yard scoring pass, knotting the score at 7-7 with 9:18 to go in the opening quarter.

McKinney was 15-of-29 for a career-high 307 yards and 3 TDs, but he was picked off three times. Gratton had 3 receptions for 104, and one score – all in the first half. Moore rushed 15 times for 93 yards and had 3 catches for a career-high 145 yards. McKinney gained 68 yards on 13 totes.

The Griz defense was led by sophomore free safety Matt Hermanson with 12 tackles, while junior linebacker John Kanongata'a added 10 stops.

Jackson was 24-of-34-0 for 260 yards and 2 TDs. Miller rushed 27 times for 91 yards.

At Montana 34, Liberty 14

MISSOULA, MONTANA – Under a hazy, smoke-filled sky due to near-by forest fires, the 14th-ranked Grizzlies defeated the visiting Liberty University Flames in UM's final non-league game of the season in Washington-Grizzly Stadium.

They say the numbers don't lie, but they did this time. In the first meeting of these two teams, Liberty had more first downs, more passing yards and more time with the ball. While the Flames may have seemed more dominant offensively, Montana used their time efficiently to rack up 201 rushing yards, almost 10 times that of what Liberty (0-3) put on the board. And, it paid off by giving the Grizzlies (2-1) their second victory of the season.

Montana built up some much-needed momentum when senior halfback Peter Nguyen returned a 90-yard punt for a touchdown with 5:54 left in the first quarter. Nguyen's return ranks as the third longest punt return in school history.

To open up the second quarter, Montana's defense forced a fumble to give the Grizzlies possession of the ball at Liberty's 32-yard line. On the next play, Dan Moore pummeled through Liberty's defense for a touchdown. Montana lengthened is lead 14-0. With a little less than ten minutes left to go in the quarter, redshirt freshman quarterback Trent McKinney rushed six yards into the end zone to up the Grizzly lead to 21-0.

Redshirt freshman kicker Chris Lider was looking to improve his consistency, and he did just that. To close out the second quarter, Lider kicked a 42-yard field goal to put the Griz up 24-0. Lider also connected two PAT tries after the three UM touchdowns.

Liberty tried to stage a comeback with a 14-yard touchdown pass from redshirt freshman quarterback Josh Woodrum to senior wide receiver Pat Kelly to put the Flames on the board in the third quarter, while their defense held Montana to no touchdowns in that stanza.

To start off the fourth quarter, Montana answered back with a touchdown of its own. McKinney connected a two yard pass with senior tight end Greg Hardy to put one in the end zone. The Grizzlies distanced themselves from the Flames 31-7.

Less than two minutes later, the Flames created some momentum of their own on a five-play, 92-yard scoring drive that culminated with a 31-yard pass from Woodrum to senior wide receiver Ryan Ferguson. The Grizzly defense held strong and handed the game off to the offense with 5:34 left to go in the game. They put Lider in position to connect on a 46 yard field goal – a career long.

The Grizzlies ended the game with a bang when redshirt freshman linebacker Nick Holt forced a Liberty fumble which was recovered by redshirt freshman safety Justin Whitted. Montana rolled down the clock and closed out the game at Liberty's 17-yard line.

McKinney completed 19 of 26 passes for 95 yards and rushed for 28 yards on seven totes. He had no interceptions and was sacked once. Hardy had seven receptions for 29 yards and one touchdown. Moore racked up 92 yards with 16 carries. The Grizzlies, who had four turnovers last Saturday at Appalachian State, turned the ball over just once on a fumble.

Montana's defense was led by junior linebacker John Kanongata'a, who had 10 tackles, while redshirt sophomore defensive end Zack Wagenmann had three stops for loss, a pair of sacks, and a pass deflection.

Woodrum was 34-of-440-1 for 322 yards and two touchdowns, while Kelly had 14 receptions for 88 yards and a TD.

Next Saturday Montana celebrates homecoming, and opens up Big Sky Conference play against the Northern Arizona Lumberjacks. Liberty hosts Lehigh.

NAU 41, At Montana 31

MISSOULA, MONTANA -- The Northern Arizona Lumberjacks snapped a 14-game winning skein by The University of Montana Grizzlies and they also ended UM's 19-game Homecoming winning streak on a warm, smoky day in Washington-Grizzly Stadium

It was also the first win ever for NAU mentor Jerome Souers, a former (1986-97) longtime assistant coach at UM, who is in his 14th season as the head man in Flagstaff.

Junior halfback Zach Bauman rushed for a career-high 253 yards along with 3 touchdowns to lead the Jacks, and the NAU defense forced five Griz turnovers.

It was a game of two completely halves for the Griz.

Montana rallied from an early 7-0 deficit and scored 24 unanswered points, and the Grizzlies took a 24-7 lead with 13:16 remaining in the second quarter on a 12-yard touchdown run by senior halfback/fullback Dan Moore.

But after Moore's scoring run gave UM a 17-point advantage, NAU racked up six consecutive unanswered scores, and took a 41-24 lead on Bauman's third scoring run of the afternoon, this on a 2-yarder with just 5:53 left in the contest.

The Griz finally got on the board after more than a 40-minutes scoring drought, as sophomore quarterback Shay Smithwick-Hann hit redshirt freshman wide receiver Ellis Henderson on a 45-yard touchdown pass with 1:58 left to go.

Bauman showed a sign of things to come on a NAU's first play from scrimmage, as he broke loose for an 11-second, 75-yard scoring run, giving the Jacks an early 7-0 lead.

But, the Griz bounced right back, as redshirt freshman kicker Chris Lider hit a 27-yard field goal, and then Moore regained the lead for his team on a 6-yard scoring run (which was set up thanks to a blocked punt by junior tight end Clay Pierson), making it 10-7 UM with 9:49 left in the first quarter. Moore's scoring burst was followed by a 31-yard TD jaunt by redshirt freshman Trent McKinney, and then Moore's 12-yard score, but those 24 points would be all that Montana would muster.

NAU cut the Griz lead to 10 points with 9:15 left in the second quarter on a 3-yard run by senior transfer (Cal) Covaughn DeBoksie-Johnson, and it ended up 24-14 UM at halftime.

The Jacks took the lead back for good in the third quarter on a touchdown pass from senior quarterback Cary Grossart to sophomore tight end R. J. Rickert , which was followed up by a pair of field goals by junior kicker Andy Wilder, and Wilder's 23-yarder with 1:49 left in the third stanza gave NAU the lead (27-24) for good.

Bauman, who had 29 carries, gave NAU some breathing room, scoring on touchdown runs of 20 and 2 yards in the final quarter, the second scoring run coming with 5:53 left to play in the contest.

McKinney had a solid first half, going 13-of-17-1 for 161 yards and rushing five times for 50 yards. But he struggled in the final two quarters, and finished the game 20-of-34-3 for 199 yards, and had 49 total rushing yards due to two sacks.

Senior wide receiver Sam Gratton had a game-high 5 catches for 72 yards, while Henderson had 3 grabs for 99 yards and a TD.

Moore led the Griz with 12 carries for 74 yards and two touchdowns, but fumbled twice, and both miscues were recovered by NAU.

Brock Coyle had a career and game-high 15 tackles, while fellow junior linebacker Jordan Tripp added 12 stops. Sophomore end Zack Wagenmann and junior safety Bo Tully had 10 tackles apiece.

Grossart, who had missed NAU's previous two games because of a knee injury, was 16-of-23-0 for 138 yards and one touchdown.

At E. WASHINGTON 32, MONTANA 26

CHENEY, WASH. – It was a heartbreaking loss for the Grizzlies, as the Eagles had two late-game scores in the last two-and-a-half minutes to overcome a 26-17 Grizzlies lead.

EWU started off the first quarter with a touchdown with 10:47 left to in the first quarter, as running back Demitrius Bronson rushed for a 5-yard TD to give the Eagles an early 7-0 lead.

UM answered with a touchdown of their own, as senior halfback Peter Nguyen scored on a 37-yard run to tie the game at 7-7 with 4:40 left to go in the first quarter.

EWU regained the lead when Vernon Adams hit wide receiver Brandon Kaufman for a 36-yard scoring pass, making it 14-7 EWU with 11:42 left in the second quarter.

UM cut the margin to 14-10 on a 27-yard field goal by Chris Lider with 7:10 to go until the half. The Eagles' Kevin Miller kicked a 19-yard kick to close out the first half, EWU leading 17-10.

The Grizzlies put together a 15-play, 73-yard drive, with redshirt freshman quarterback Trent McKinney scoring on a 7-yard run. Lider missed the PAT, though, and the Eagles led 17-16.

The Griz recovered a fumble by Miller on the Eagles' 8-yard line, and two plays later sophomore halfback Jordan Canada scored on a 2-yard run and UM led 23-17. Lider tacked on another field goal to give UM a 26-17 lead with 8:26 remaining in the game.

But, Adams completed pass after pass and hit Kaufman on a 30-yard touchdown pass to cut the Grizzlies' lead to 26-24 with 2:19 left to play.

EWU then recovered an onside kick and scored the go-ahead touchdown after wide receiver Ashton Clark caught a 20-yard scoring pass from Adams. EWU then converted a two-point conversion to take a 36-32 lead with just 53 seconds left to play.

The Grizzlies rushed 61 times for 407 yards, and passed for 126, out-gaining the Eagles 533 to 447 in total yards.

Once again, Montana battled turnovers, though, as they fumbled the ball away three times. The Griz lost one fumble on the EWU 12-yard line, another one on the Eagles' 5-yard line, and then finally on an onside kick on the UM 49-yard line, which led to the winning touchdown.

The Griz rushed 61 times for 407 yards, and were led by who gained a career-high 168 yards on 19 carries, while Nguyen added 123 yards on 23 totes. Senior Dan Moore rushed four times for 24 yards, and left the game early with an ankle injury. McKinney rushed for 25 yards and was 14-of-17-0 passing for 126 yards.

Montana's defense was led by linebackers Brock Coyle and Jordan Tripp, with 12 tackles apiece, and Tripp also had three tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

Adams was 25-for-41-1 for 353 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for 60 yards to tally 407 yards of total offense. Kaufman had eight receptions for 138 yards and two touchdowns.

Montana 40, at N. Colorado 17

GREELEY, COLO. -- The Grizzlies came to life in the second half to snap a two-game losing streak and spoiled the Bears' Homecoming game to get their first Big Sky Conference win of the season.

After suffering two disheartening losses against Northern Arizona (41-31) and Eastern Washington (32-26), Montana desperately needed the victory.

For one of the first times this season, UM was on the opposite side of the turnover battle, as they had none, while the Bears had five. Josh Dennard, Bo Tully, and Nate Harris all intercepted passes by NC quarterback Seth Lobato.

The interception that turned the momentum Montana's way was an interception thrown by UNC punter Mason Puckett. After Puckett had received a bad snap and bobbled the ball he tried a desperation pass that landed in senior special team captain Caleb Walden's hands, who returned it 18 yards for a TD and the Griz had an improbable 7-0 lead with 13:41 to go in the second quarter, and UM would lead for the rest of the game. To end the half, redshirt freshman kicker Chris Lider hit a 34-yard field goal as time expired to give Montana a 10-0 advantage at intermission.

The Bears got right back in the game, though, as senior Dominic Gunn returned a kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown to get NC on the board at the 14:46 mark on the third quarter. Gunn had a 94-yard kickoff return for a TD last season against UM.

But, UM's offense came alive in the second half, led by senior halfback Peter Nguyen, along with freshman redshirt quarterback Trent McKinney, who helped the Griz gain 223 yards in the final two quarters of play.

Nguyen rushed for a 13-yard score to give Montana a 17-7 lead at the 11:04 mark of the third quarter.

On NC's next possession, they hit a 24-yard field goal, to keep within one touchdown (17-10) of Montana.

The Griz came right back, as McKinney rushed for a 12- yard TD with 5:42 left in the third quarter, the Grizzlies taking a 24-10 lead.

Montana scored again to start of the fourth quarter, as McKinney connected with junior wide receiver Cam Warren for a 17-yard touchdown. Lider missed the extra point, but Montana led 30-10, with 14:54 left to play.

Junior halfback Tromaine Dennis fumbled the ball on NC's next possession, and the ball was recovered by junior linebacker Brock Coyle at the Bear's 27-yard line, who returned it 23 yards to NC's 4-yard line. Montana had to settle for a 19-yard field goal by Lider with 12:58 left, but led 33-10.

The Grizzlies picked up their final touchdown when sophomore running back Brett Kirschner, who was in the grasp of a NC defender, lateraled the ball to McKinney, who scored from one yard out, giving UM a 30-point (40-10) lead with 6:17 left.

NC managed its only offensive score of the game when Lobato connected with Gunn for a 24-yard TD with 1:32 left.

Nguyen rushed for a career-high of 159 yards on just 15 carries, to average 10.6 yards per attempt. McKinney had 10 carries for 65 yards. As a team, the Grizzlies racked up 294 yards in rushing on 46 carries. McKinney was 14-of-25-0 passing for 142 yards.

Coyle had a career-high 11 tackles, along with a sack and the fumble recovery. Sophomore defensive end Zack Wagenmann had 5 tackles and two sacks. Of the 58 Grizzly players who traveled to Greeley, 57 played.

Lobato was 25-of-42-3 passing for 259 yards and a touchdown. Dennis led the Bears in rushing yards with 14 carries for 50 yards.
