THE STORYLINE

For the second straight season, Montana State faces Sam Houston State in the FCS Playoffs quarterfinals. This time around, the fifth-ranked Bearkats visit Bobcat Stadium a 6 pm Friday night contest televised nationally on ESPN2. Friday's contest arrives with plenty of fanfare, marking the first time the Bobcats have hosted two Playoff home games in the same season since 1984. Like last week, the Cats face a strong ground game - SHSU ranks seventh in the FCS at 273.9 yards a game. The Bearkats bring a staunch defense to Bozeman, as well, standing 15th nationally in total defense (312.2) and 14th in scoring defense (18.8). MSU counters with the nation's eighth-ranked defensive squad (304.6).

A Quick Look

MSU vs. Sam Houston State

The Series

Just one year ago, Sam Houston State took a 3-2 lead in the series with a 49-13 playoff win in Huntsville. The series began when the Bobcats opened SHSU's Elliott Bowers Stadium in 1986 with a 23-6 SHSU win. The Bobcats avenged that loss with a 52-48 win in 1987. Sam Houston's 3-2 edge includes a 2-1 advantage in Huntsville. Montana State beat SHSU 15-10 in then-Reno H. Sales Stadium in 1989, while the Bearkats won 26-23 in comeback fashion in Bozeman in 1991.

The Bearkats in Prime Time

Sam Houston's selection to the 2012 FCS Playoffs marks the sixth time it has been tabbed for the post-season, and the first time the Bearkats have been selected in consecutive seasons. Sam Houston State ended Montana State's 2011 season in the quarterfinal round before enduring its only loss last year in the FCS Championship Game, falling to North Dakota State.

Good on the Ground

Montana State faces one of the nation's top ground games for the third straight week when Sam Houston State comes to Bobcat Stadium Saturday. The Bearkats average 273.9 yards a game on the ground, led by sensational tailback Timothy Flanders. The 5-9 junior gains 104.3 yards a game on the ground, and is supplemented by Keshawn Hill (43.1), Richard Sincere (39.6), Ryan Wilson (24.0) and Brian Bell (22.7). Bell is 13th nationally in passing efficiency. Flanders holds 22 Sam Houston State school records, and he has gained more than 100 yards rushing eight times in 2012.

Racking Up Ranked Foes

Sam Houston State owns four wins over opponents ranked in the top 10 in the last decade. Two of those came last season, when the Bearkats beat #7 MSU 49-13 and #5 Montana 31-28 in consecutive weeks in the FCS Playoffs.

Bobcat Injury Report

OUT: DE Odin Coe, OL Christian Williams, OL Charles Lee; TE Tiai Salanoa, WR Jake Olson.
QUESTIONABLE: RB Cody Kirk

Block Party

Under head coach Willie Fritz, Sam Houston State has been frighteningly proficient at blocking opponent kicks. The Bearkats got six last year, and are sitting on that total this year after blocking a Cal Poly punt for a safety last week.

Big Sky Newcomers

Montana State has completed its three games against first-year league members, finishing 3-0. MSU's last loss to a first-year Big Sky school came in 1987 (Eastern Washington), and MSU is 9-2 in such games. The breakdown:

1970	Northern Arizona	MSU 28, NAU 8 at Bozeman
1970	Boise State	BSU 17, MSU 10 at Bozeman
1979	Nevada-Reno	MSU 12, UNR 10 at Reno
1987	Eastern Washington	EWU 32, MSU 30 at Bozeman
1996	Portland State	MSU 24, PSU 6 at Bozeman
1996	Sacramento State	MSU 51, SAC 14 at Bozeman
1996	Cal State Northridge	MSU 24, CSN 17 at Northridge
2006	Northern Colorado	MSU13, NC 10 at Bozeman
2012	Southern Utah	MSU 24, Southern Utah 17 at Cedar City
2012	UC Davis	MSU 48-41 at Davis
2012	North Dakota	MSU 55-10 at Bozeman

It's All Relative

Montana State's 2012 football team is one of strong bloodlines. In addition to the three sets of brothers on the team (Jake and Tanner Bleskin, twins Kruiz and Kazz Siewing, and Chase and Rhett Young), three Bobcats - Brad Daly (Bobby, along with father J.), Caleb Schreibeis (Joe), Brian Bignell (Clay) and Connor Verlanic (Andrew) - have brothers that played for the Cats. Also: Heath Hunter's father Alex played at UM, Jackson Mahlum's father and Cody Kirk's uncle Tom Mahlum, Nate Bignell's father Joe and Trace Timmer's father Kirk all played on MSU's 1984 National Championship team. Trace Timmer's brother Ty and Connor Verlanic's brother Alex each played at Montana. And in one MSU-DU twist, freshman Bobcat offensive lineman JP Flynn's brother Steven played at Drake. He was recruited by Rob Ash, but the long-time Bulldog head man departed for Bozeman before Flynn's career began.

Bobcat Offensive Notebook

Offensive Notes

- Tanner Bleskin's 130 receiving yards Saturday matches a Bobcat playoff record.

- After turning the ball over 17 times in the first seven games, Montana State's offense has given it away just twice in the last five games.

- Since its 39 first downs against North Dakota, the MSU has just 18.5 per game.

- Stony Brook had allowed its opponents to hold the ball for an average of only 27 minutes a game, MSU possessed it three ticks short of 31 minutes last weekend.

- In 31 games on Bobcat Stadium's artificial surface, Montana State has averaged 429.9 yards of offense (13,326 total) per game, and 33.5 points (1,039 total points). The turf was donated by MSU's 1984 National Championship team, which featured Jackson Mahlum's dad and Cody Kirk's uncle (Tom Mahlum), Brian Bignell's uncle and Nate Bignell's father (Joe Bignell), and Trace Timmer's father (Kirk Timmer) and uncle (Troy Timmer).

- DeNarius McGhee's 30 wins and 70 TD passes are both MSU career records.

- Junior RB Cody Kirk's 13 rushing TDs this season is 4th in MSU history, and the 29 in his career is tied for 1st

- Seven offensive linemen have seen extensive playing time for the Bobcats this season, including a regular lineup featuring a third-year senior starter (Shaun Sampson) surrounded by four newcomers. The starting group of two seniors, a sophomore and two freshmen marks MSU's youngest front since 2000, when it started two freshmen and one sophomore, junior and senior. One of the freshmen was future All-America tackle Brent Swaggert. Mike Quast would start the next three seasons at guard, while Swaggert was entrenched as a four-year starter. Paul Diercks and Ryan Henning each started the next two seasons.

- MSU's John Weidenaar and Eastern Washington's Clay DeBord are the only two starting left tackles playing as freshmen among FCS top 25 schools.

Bobcat Defensive Notebook

Defensive Notes

● Montana State has ascended to or near the top of several Big Sky defensive lists. Here is a look...

Category	Avg	BSC	FCS
Scoring Defense	20.0	1st	19th
Total Defense	304.6	1st	8th
Rushing Defense	98.3	2nd	7th
Pass Efficiency Defense	108.25	1st	12th
Pass Defense	206.3	2nd	49th

● Senior Caleb Schreiber has spent his senior season wrecking opposing offenses. In 11 games, Schreiber has forced a school-record eight fumbles, hurried the quarterback seven times, and registered 12.5 sacks and 15 tackles-for-loss. The former walk-on has registered at least a half-sack in each of his 2012 games

● Chadron State's 135 yards was the fewest allowed in an MSU season opener since Adams State gained 116 in 2008.

● The Big Sky's top team against the run much of the season, MSU allowed 60 yards or less in four different games. The Cats held Stony Brook to 150 yards below its season rushing average.

● After logging eight sacks vs. UND, MSU registered just nine in the last five games. The Cats, however, have 35 tackles-for-loss in that span.

● Senior Darius Jones has traded pass breakups for picks this year. The man with 31 career PBUs didn't get his first interception until late in 2011, but now has four this year after getting one at Sac State and another that set up a TD vs. Portland State.

● Steven Bethley sealed wins late in games with interceptions vs. SFA and Southern Utah and a fumble recovery against Sac State. He returned his third pick of the season, vs. PSU, for a TD.

● Defensive tackle Zach Minter has filled up the stat sheet during his senior season. In nine games - he's missed two full games and large parts of two others - Minter has 8.5 tackles-for-loss, three sacks, one interception, one pass, one pass breakup, and two hurries.

● MSU leads the Big Sky in third down defense (29.0%).

Bobcat Special Teams Notes

Kick Team Notes

● Montana State's first field goal attempt of 2012 came 179-and-a-half minutes into its season. With 31 seconds remaining against SFA, Rory Perez converted his first field goal try as a Bobcat, a 45-yarder that gave MSU an eight-point lead against #23 Stephen F. Austin.

● Since that first made field goal, Perez has kept on converting. The junior from Moreno Valley, Calif., stood 7-for-7 on the season before missing for the first time in 2012 late against Eastern Washington. Perez now stands 16-for-20 on the year, and one miss was a 52-yard try in frigid conditions vs. PSU.

● MSU's punting tandem has performed well booting the ball, but has also provided fourth-down offense. Rory Perez completed a pass to Jake Olson for a first down against Stephen F. Austin, his second career completion, while Trevor Bolton scampered 23 yards for a first down against North Dakota.

● MSU stands sixth in the league in kickoff coverage, but in four mid-season games MSU faced the league's top two kick returners (Josh Smith of SUU and Dominic Gunn of NC) and the top kick return team (EWU). The Cats have allowed only six kick returns longer than 25 yards all season, and two longer than 30.

● Freshman kickoff specialist AJ Silva has drilled 35 touchbacks in his 77 kick-offs this season, the third-best rate in the Big Sky. Average starting position for Bobcat opponents after kickoffs is the 25 yard line.

● Trevor Bolton's college debut was certainly memorable. Handling place-kicking and punting chores in the opener against Chadron State, the redshirt freshman had his first two kicks (both extra points) blocked, then rallied to hit three in a row. He had a solid night punting, averaging 39.7 yards on three kicks, pinning Chadron State inside the 20 twice and booming a long of 47. Only one of Bolton's punts was returned, and that for just eight yards.

Noting Rob Ash

Ash, MSU, and the Top Ten

MSU has spent 29 weeks ranked in the top 10 of the Sports Network poll under Rob Ash. Before Ash arrived, MSU spent 14 weeks in the top 10 in the school's Division I era (since 1978).

Climbing the All-Time List

While Rob Ash entered 2012 among the top 15 active coaches in victories, his standing on the all-time list may be even more impressive. Among all college football coaches all-time, Rob Ash stands 43rd with 226 wins, and is 16th among active coaches.

Against the Class of '07

The Big Sky welcomed four new head coaches in 2007. Rob Ash stands 12-0 against Jerry Glanville, John Zamberlin, and the only other survivor, Marshall Sperbeck of Sacramento State.

Ash Escort

To promote the Montana Hope Project, which aids Treasure State children in need, a Montana State Trooper escorts Rob Ash on the sideline each game.

Ash and the AFCA

Bobcat coach Rob Ash is the immediate past president of the American Football Coaches Association.

More on Ash and Winning

With MSU's win at UC Davis, Rob Ash became MSU's first head coach to compile six straight winning seasons. Only Mike Kramer (2000-06) and Herb Agocs (1958-62) strung together five consecutive winning seasons as Bobcat coaches, while Ash and Agocs are the only two with five straight winning seasons without a losing campaign.
